

Six Jesuits and Sixteen Laymen New to Faculty This September

Six new priests and sixteen lay faculty members have been added to the faculty at Canisius.

Father Thomas F. McGann, S.J. comes to us from LeMoyne College and has assumed the duties of professor of ethics.

Father Robert H. Neubeck, S.J. has recently completed his graduate study at Georgetown University and will teach economics.

LeMoyne's second transferee to Canisius is Father Joseph Riordan, S.J. who will teach psychology at the college.

Father Edward Reiser, S.J. comes to us from Canisius High School where he has been an administrator since 1952. Father Reiser will assume the post of treasurer at Canisius.

From St. Michael's community come the Rev. Thomas I. O'Malley and Rev. Aloysius J. Kelsch who will act as confessors.

Additions to the lay faculty include:

Dr. J. Mendels, who will assume the duties of assistant professor of modern languages. Dr. Mendels was formerly on the faculty of Lewis College in Illinois.

Mrs. Lillian Levey, who will be acting Dean of Women and assistant professor of nursing education, and Victor Comerchero, a new instructor in English.

The new Director of Guidance is W. Raymond Mann. Mr. Mann, formerly assistant professor of psychology at Assumption University of Windsor, is also teaching a course in the Education Department.

Newcomers to the Modern Language Department also include Mr. Leo P. Lederer, and Mr. Michael Burtniak, who will receive his doctorate at Columbia next year.

The Philosophy Department has received Dr. Florence M. Hetzler into their ranks. Dr. Hetzler received her Ph.D. from Fordham and has also studied at the University of Paris under a Fulbright grant.

Two newcomers to the Mathematics Department are: Dr. Joseph Kerec and Mr. William Phinney Jr., who are assistant professors.

Mr. A. Allen Alexander and Miss Ann Lee Stocking will become instructors in biology.

Messrs. James S. Valone and Peter M. Keser are instructors in history. Both men are now studying for their doctoral degree.

Mr. Samuel R. Reid will assume the post of assistant professor of marketing management, and Dr. Ronald E. Erickson has assumed an assistant professorship in the Chemistry Department.

THE ANNUAL MASS of the Holy Spirit begins the school year September 12 at St. Michael's Church. Students, faculty, and administration attended this proper and solemn ceremony. The Very Rev. James J. McGinley, President of the College, celebrated the solemn High Mass and the Rev. Joseph C. Kelly delivered the sermon.
