

What did you get from your time at Canisius?

- A new way of looking at the world?
- The chance to study abroad? Participate in a service-immersion experience?
- Play on a Division 1 sports team?
- A best friend? A partner?
- An opportunity to help others? An exciting career path?

It's very likely that gifts to Canisius by those who came before you supported many of the experiences that mattered most to you. And even if you graduated a few years ago, or just last year, it's not too soon to think about giving back.

You can make a difference

You don't have to wait until you've reached a milestone in your career to make a gift. Your philanthropy can have a positive impact on students right now.

The value of your gift is much greater than its dollar amount. Consistent annual giving from the newest generation of alumni shows that you appreciate the role of philanthropy in your own education. And it sends a message that you remain part of the Canisius community and feel connected to the college's future. In fact, your leadership gift is a powerful investment in the next generation of Golden Griffins.

You can be a leader now... Young Alumni Leadership Society + YOU

Your annual gift to Canisius can qualify you for membership in the Canisius College Leadership Society. This special society recognizes the generosity and dedication of alumni who have graduated within the past 10 years and who make gifts at the following levels:

UNDERGRADUATE CLASS YEARS	GIFT AMOUNT
2018 - 2019	$100
2015 - 2017	$250
2012 - 2014	$500
2010 - 2011	$750

In addition to setting an example for your classmates, leadership giving provides opportunities to network with leaders from other classes and take a more active role in Canisius’ philanthropic community. You will also receive invitations to exclusive events for Leadership Society members in addition to being among the first to learn of college news and campus events. For more information on the Young Alumni Leadership Society, please contact Matt Gorczyca ’13, MS ’15, assistant director of the Canisius Fund, at 716.888.2711 or gorczycm@canisius.edu.
